IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.309 OF 2006

1.Shri Satish Srivastav

2.Shri Ranvijay Sing ...Applicants.

V/s

The State of Maharashtra ...Respondent.

Mr. S.A. Ingawale for the applicants.

Mr. S.S. Tatkare, APP for the State.

CORAM: V.M. KANADE, J.

DATE: 31st January, 2006

P.C:

1. Heard the learned Counsel for the applicants and the learned APP for the State.

2. The learned Counsel for the applicants seeks permission to withdraw this application with liberty to approach the appropriate Court for regular bail. He states that the applicants undertake to surrender before the appropriate Court within a period of one week.

3. The application is accordingly allowed to be withdrawn with liberty to the applicants to apply to the appropriate Court for bail after they surrender before the appropriate Court. Ad-interim relief granted to continue for a period of seven days only. If the applicants do not surrender within a period of seven days, the police shall immediately take action and arrest the applicants. The withdrawal of this application by the applicants may not be construed as rejection of the anticipatory bail on merits. The application for bail, when filed, may be decided expeditiously.
